Spring 2017 Edition

Here is the Spring 2017 Edition of the Space/Gulf Coast Chapter's newsletter. As reported last time it is now being published as a web-based document that is accessible from any computer, tablet or smartphone using any web browser. This universal access, any platform, any time ability to our members to find out what's going on in their Chapter and the BetterInvesting world is a very valuable new capability that this "plugged in" Chapter is pioneering in the BI world. Based on your feedback you really like the new format and convenient accessibility.

Contributions to the newsletter from our BI membership is very much encouraged and welcome. Send your ideas for articles (or the article itself) to BISCC.BOD@gmail.com so that the Editor may include it in a future edition of the newsletter.
